CRAB ORCHARD, Oct., 29.-We are having three or four speeches a week here now. Col. Breckinridge spoke yesterday to a good audience and his speech was well received and liberally applauded. It was in strange contrast to the locendrary and strife-stirring speech of the candidate for secretary of State on the republican ticket, who here spoke of trees bearing a strange kind of fruit, human dead bodies. So and repeats it, and no doubt has repeated it over the State as many times as Time CARI he has spoken his dessitation to the utterances. ernor, who, I am informed, advises the rifle and shotgun to be carried to the polls, thus converting the hosts of suffragers into an army of soldiers to slay their brothers, when the constitution requires all soldiers to be removed two miles from election grounds before the election is held. Such men's names should not be called. Erostratus burned the Temple of Diana to acquire deathless immortality. He did acquire it, but 'tie the undying immortality of infamy. I am completely disgusted with so called self-made men. They > never speak grammatically. The candidate for secretary of State, who spoke here, was a very good speaker to hold an audience, but he lacerated my classical tympaniums fearfully by his mis-pronunciation-measure-masure, passed-possed weary-worry id et omne genus. The egotism of a selfmade man is most unbearable. I am one myself and I ought to know. And never finish it, and never learn to pro-

I do know. And another thing the candidate for misrepresentation. Speaking on the non-collection of franchise from corporations, he did not tell that the fcorporations kept the matter in the courts as long as they could, nor did be tell that a republican board of equalization appointed by a republican governor had reduced the assessed property of the corporations more than $12,000,000, and raised it on the farmer 15 cents on the $100. What matters the collection of $5 on the corporate head of a corpora-tion if you reduced the rate of taxation to the sick citizen, "and I must not deon its property so they will make 25 or ceive you. You have only two hours to 50 per cent by the operation? There is live." a Latin maxim that the suppression of truth is a falsehood. Yes and sometimes a most flagitious one.

It will never do to allow the State government to go into the hands of incendiaries, and fanaties, who are a dangerous compound of fanaticism and political cupidity. My old housekeeper, Mrs. Pigg, says she was born in East children."-Atlanta Constitution. Tennessee and has been all over Kentucky and she never saw a radical yet that was worth $500. Rally around the flag of democracy and keep the reins of government in the hands of those who pay the taxes.

FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT. SOON TO SAIL.

CAMP MEADE, PA., Oct. 26.-The 'old reliable I. J." is always welcome at home, but much more so when one is hundreds of miles away. Have; just come in from battalion drill. We now drill eight hours a day, including dress parade. Our officers for the most part are regular army officers or have seen service in the volunteer service. The secretary of war will review the 41st Sunday and, of course, every man will be expected to be in trim, so to speak.

I want to correct an error that I had in your issue of the 24th. Col. Howe is commander of the 47th regiment, which is slated to leave Saturday for the Philippines Col. Richmond commands the 41st regiment and what he doesn't know about military tactics lsn't worth knowing The companies of this regiment will average 125 men, while the maximum aumber is 106. Before the departure of the regiment for the Grient, there will be; another examination and only the picked will go. As it is I am little concerned as long as I have the adjutant general backing me. It is a sure thing that this regiment will go zeross the Atlantic through the Sucz Canal. It will take about six weeks to make the trip. The regiment is $ shied to leave Nev. 20th. The lat |-Chicago Tribune. week and the same will be kept up until the regiment leaves the States. All at present drilling in company, battalion and regimental formation are oing through skirmtsh drills and bayonet charges. The fare is as good as could be expected in the army and the only objectionable feature I find is not getting enough, or rather all I want, I should say.

MICKEY FINN ON FISHING.

A Pew Waltonese Remarks From an Experienced Angler.

"Speakin o' fishin," said Rafferty, "give me the fish that feed on the bottom. To hook an ould tin paint pail full o' mud and clam shells and seaweed is almost as much fun as listenin to a Dutch band play 'Gotterdammer-

"Whin you are fishin for paint pails far from repenting of such unpatriotic always try to book them by the hanutterances, he goes on to Middlesboro die. That will give the pall a good chance to monkey wid the tide whin you start it from its sulky position on the bottom.

"Paint pails are bottom fish. "Tis not like the bluefish, bekase it pever makes flyin jumps in the air, but 'tis a gamy ould sen dog for all that. Twill fight for every inch o' line. There never was a man that hooked a paint pail but thought he had a codfish weighin 15 pounds. Codfish are just about as gamy as paint pails.

"Whin you have the paint pail reeled in, it's all the same whether you use a landing net or a gaff hook. Whin you have it in the boat, you can call on your imagination and think 'tis a lobster, which it will be, like the Dutch woman kept the hotel out west.

"But paint pails are not the only things that feed on the bottom. There's are always too proud of the job and the ould boot. There was a time whin Irishmin used to wear boots, but not now. The only place you will find am nounce their words A Negro once told is in your favorite fishin spot. The me that a Negro might graduate in all ould boot is a godsend to little cels to the colleges in the world and he could hide in. An cel as long as a lead pencil will carry your bait into the boot leg.

"You think you have a bite, and you hook the boot leg through the strap. That's what straps are put there for. There is no danger of the hook tearin out, and the ould boot will not spit out the bait, but you must handle the boot leg gently, bekase gentlest fishermen is always more successful. The ould boot leg will lay quiet in the boat, but if he should get frisky you can drop the anchor on him.

"But if you want rale fun fish for secretary of State was remarkable for tondfish. He has jaws like a rat trap and skin like sole leather. You had better take a vise and a cold chisel along to get the hook out of his mouth, for he will close on a piece of crab like a safe door on a sore finger.

"But what a divvil's grin the toadfish wears whin you cut off about a yard of leader at a quarter a foot and throw fish and leader overboard bekase you are afraid to touch the thafe!"-Mickey Finn in New York World.

"Only two hours?" "Only two."
